

I support K-love in my community to listen to encouraging words and fantastic Christian music. If K-love were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcast, there would be a huge void. K-love has family programming and has an encouraging impact for me and my family. I would not like to see it replaced